AT UNION SERVICE

Central Union Was Filled With Worshippers.

THE SERMON AND MUSIC

Eloquent Discourse By Rev. C. L. Pearson—Acknowledging Good Gifts—The Other Churches.

There was an imposing, an inspiring gathering for the Union Thanksgiving service at Central Union church yesterday forenoon. The main auditorium was completely filled and the gallery was occupied by a couple of hundred worshippers. There were combined the congregations of Central Union, First Methodist and Christian churches and it seemed that all of the members who were able to leave home were present at the service. Besides there were delegations from Kamehameha from Chinese schools and missions and churches and from Kawaiahae Seminary and Kamehameha Girls' School. The Palama chapel was well represented. It was an outpouring of church as well as other people for Thanksgiving. The music was grand. There were seventeen voices in the choir and for instruments there were the great pipe organ, a viola and a piano. Besides the singing of hymns there were anthems and special numbers. The organ postlude was something fine and did not escape notice and favorable comment. For the offertory there was a solo by Mr. Wichman. The choir director, Professor Yarnley played the viola for the opening of the service. Miss Leighton, Miss Halstead, Miss Hall, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. Damon, Miss Clymer, Miss Johnson and the other ladies were in fine voice. Mr. Lambert was at the piano. The church was simply yet very prettily decorated for the occasion. Live green predominated.

In the pulpit were Rev. D. P. Birnie, Rev. G. L. Pearson and Rev. T. D. Garvin. The sermon was by Mr. Pearson. The other pastors took part in the service. The offering was for the Strangers' Friend Society and was a large one. After the doxology the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Prayer was offered by the Central Union Pastor and two psalms were read responsively. There was then a scripture reading by Rev. Mr. Garvin.

The sermon was a masterpiece in devotion and oratory. The new Methodist pastor is a remarkably rapid and a very effective talker. He occupied nearly an hour in the delivery of his sermon and had the closest attention from beginning to end. Naturally the general theme of his discourse was Thanksgiving and gratefulness. He first spoke of the common blessings of life made common to all by their unvarying presence. These were health, the light, the air, the pleasant surroundings of the home and the daily life, the general material prosperity. Then came reference with deep earnestness to the best of all good things—the spiritual gift to mankind—communion with the Maker, the sustaining, ennobling companionship of the sacred Love of the Christ. The speaker depicted in a most vivid manner the old order in this land—idolatry, immorality. Next the other side was flashed to the hearers—the bringing of the Gospel by self-sacrificing men and women, the advance of the lessons of the Bible, the transformation of the people, the establishment of righteousness. Education, cultivation, charity, higher life, obtain and spread. There was much and there is much for which to be thankful. The realm of opportunity opens a vista for which honest and well-meaning servants of the Master should be continually grateful. And with all that has been done here, with the evidence of the accomplishment of wondrous tasks all about, there yet remains local opportunity for effort, for toil, for exertion that should give satisfaction and joy and delight. For Christianity itself, for the favor shown to Christian nations, all should be thankful. The Christian nations are blessed and there comes to them from India, from China, from Japan, from Dark Africa, the invitation to confer for the welfare of the soul, to teach the straight and narrow way. For music, for daily pleasure, for extension of life, for peace and the prospects of peace, grateful acknowledgment should be readily and willingly made. Rev. Mr. Pearson's discourse was replete with Biblical references and had several quotations from hymns and poems. As a sermon it was a treat and for directness and diction and thought and delivery was something to be remembered.

There was a very large congregation at St. Andrew's and the sermon by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, who is himself such a worker was one to urge on all engaged in doing good, all desiring to labor for light where there is darkness, to assist in dispelling life clouds and surrounding discouraging conditions with the sunshine of hope. There were many visitors and the church was beautifully decorated. The music, with Mr. Wray Taylor at the organ was the finest for several years. The solos were by Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. Geo. J. Ross, Ernest Ross, W. L. Stanley and Chas. Booth.

There was a large attendance for the Low Mass by the Bishop at the Roman Catholic Cathedral at 9 in the morning.

COUNSEL NOW ARGUING.

Testimony In the Smith Murder Trial All In.

The prosecution put on its last witness in rebuttal, in the Smith murder trial, shortly before noon yesterday. The forenoon was spent in clearing up point in the testimony of the various witnesses. One of the witnesses stated Tuesday that she saw the Mikahala and the Hall off the shore of Kauai on the day set for Paupau's coming to Honolulu. Evidence was introduced yesterday by the prosecution, in the shape of the steamship company's boats, to show that the Hall was laid up for repairs in Honolulu from August 15 to November 2, and could not possibly have been at Kauai during that period.

Iosepa, the boy who says he held the horse while Kapea shot Dr. Smith, was the last witness. He testified that he never bought a pistol in his life, as had previously been stated, that on the day that Kapea and his friend were practicing shooting at the jar on the wall, Kapea did not get the revolver from Iosepa's room as he had no revolver. The prosecution then rested, and Iosepa stepped down from the witness stand a free boy.

Mr. Robertson and Mr. Rosa for the defense asked for a recess that they might prepare their argument. The Court convened again at 3 o'clock and Mr. Robertson presented his points to the jury. Mr. Rosa followed in Hawaiian. Mr. Kinney will complete his argument this morning. He will also speak in Hawaiian.

The case will likely go to the jury some time this forenoon.

NEW YORK, November 14.—Football scores for yesterday were Yale 0, Harvard 0, Pennsylvania 22, Wesleyan 0, Brown 18, Carlisle Indians 14, Cornell 42, Williams 0.

LONDON, November 13.—The famous Louis XV drawing-room suit, composed of a sofa and six armchairs, with old Beauvais tapestry, has been sold in Paris to a London dealer for £14,000 ($70,000).

WASHINGTON, November 13.—Secretary Gage has issued a circular letter directing that hereafter all claims for services for the Union Pacific Railroad Company against the Government be settled and paid in cash.

WINDSOR, Ontario, November 13.—News has reached Windsor that Sir Oliver Mowat is to be made Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, the administration of the oath of office to take place at Toronto November 14th. David Mills will succeed him as Minister of Justice for the Dominion of Canada.

PARIS, November 15.—Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the famous American dentist, who facilitated the flight of the ex-Empress Eugenie from Paris in 1870, died suddenly yesterday evening. Dr. Evans had never recovered from the shock of his wife's death. He died of angina pectoris after twenty-four hours' illness.

BRINDISI, Italy, November 11.—Letters received here today from Athens say that the torpedo scandal continues to be the sensation of the Grecian capital. The basis of this scandal was the discovery that all the cartridges fitted to the torpedoes during the war with Turkey were not provided with percussion caps and fulminating mercury, and that, therefore, they would have been useless in case they were needed.

TOWN TEAM WINS

Blue and Gold Tigers Best the College Footballists.

A DECIDEDLY PRETTY CONTEST

Townies Victorious By the Score of 24 to 6—Fine Attendance—Punahou Landed in Only One Half.

Very sorrowfully did the wind sought through the trees as the Punahou students walked off the field of carnage on the Makiki baseball grounds and started in to tell their equally sorrowful comrades how it was they lost and how if the other man had done the right thing at the right time, what a different sound the band music would have had. They did not even have time to give three cheers for the winning team. Yes, it was a sorrowful wind that passed through the branches of the algaroba trees, the sorrowful part being the score of 6 for the Punahou team and the gladsome part, the score of 24 for the wearers of the black and gold. The Town team literally wiped up the ground with the jolly students, and only once did the latter get to their goal. Buck as hard as they would, they could not get through the line of the Townies. There was always the most splendid kind of a wall to meet the runners with the ball.

The Thanksgiving game of football was perhaps the very best that has ever been played on these Islands and, if the boys keep on improving from year to year, they will be able to hold their own with the teams in the colleges of the States. The playing was quick and sharp and the only delays were those incident to an injury on the part of some one of the players. The ball was kept rolling right along and the people showed that they were interested in the game by the way they applauded at the different plays. There must have been at least three thousand people present. The grand stand was filled and the space around on the outside of the ropes was all occupied. Princess Kaiulani, accompanied by Mrs. Robertson, Miss Eva Parker and Miss Anna Widemann, occupied a position about the middle of the makiki side, where a special place had been reserved for the party. All throughout the game Princess Kaiulani showed intense interest in the playing by her frequent applause.

The Hawaiian band, through the kindness of Minister Cooper, was present in the grand stand, and added a great deal to the pleasure of the afternoon by its music during the intervals of the game. All over the grounds could be seen the colors of the two competing clubs, prominently displayed, and the tin horns at various spots were kept busily at work when the owners thereof happened to be favorably impressed with a play.

"I ATE THE CANARY"

Promptly at 3:30 o'clock, the teams lined up as follows:

Town.	Position.	Punahou.
Notley	Center	Rawlins
Kawanakoa	R. G.	Howard
Cockett	L. G.	Lane
Whitehouse	R. T.	Johnson
Waterhouse	L. T.	Dayton
McCormick	R. E.	Greenwell
Armstrong	L. E.	Lawrence
Cooke	Quarter	Babbitt
Schermerhorn	R. H.	A. Long
Cornwell	L. H.	Kalaniana'ole
Conrad	Full	Soper

The Town team took the Waikiki side with the ball while the students went to the Ewa side. The officers chosen were: Andrew Adams, umpire; Cadet Tozer of the U. S. S. Baltimore, referee and Harry Waterhouse and Carlos Long, linesmen. All did their parts well and there was very little disputing.

Waterhouse kicked the ball for the Town team and Cupid, catching it, ran for his goal. Cockett was in the way and the runner was brought to a very forcible realization of the situation of affairs. The students fumbled the ball and Conrad made a "lovely" touchdown in about four minutes. Conrad failed to kick goal.

Score: Town, 4; Punahou, 0.

Punahou's ball and Soper for a long kick. Returned by Conrad and secured by the Town team on a fumble. Another fumble and the ball went back to the students, who did some very hard playing just at this stage. Soper got into a scrimmage and lost a part of his ear. Time was called and Soper went to the dressing room to secure some kind of a substitute for the missing part. A very clever double pass between the two half backs and Cupid made a touchdown around the right. It now looked as if the students would sweep everything before them but they met with the most stubborn kind of defensive playing. The ball was kicked out of bounds by Soper and secured by Cornwell. Then came some of the finest playing done by the Townies throughout the game. Cornwell and Schermerhorn, Whitehouse and Conrad, kept going through the center for big gains. Nothing seemed to hold them. Their method of sliding over their opponents was frequently applauded. Schermerhorn finally carried the ball over the line for another touchdown. Whitehouse failed to kick goal.

"HENCE THESE TEARS."

Score: Town, 8; Punahou, 6.

Punahou's kick-off. A fumble, but Dayton was on the ball in time. Dayton tried for a center play but was picked up off the ground by Armstrong and carried back quite a distance. The Townies kept getting through the line and in a very few moments, had the ball. Cooke attempted again but was tackled by Long. Again Cornwell, Schermerhorn and Cockett made big gains through the center. Steadily the ball advanced and Conrad scored another touchdown. Whitehouse again missed goal.

Score: Town, 12; Punahou, 6.

The ball went to Conrad on the kick-off and was secured by Cupid. The Town boys secured the ball on a fumble and Schermerhorn made a gain of 10 yards. Cooke got hurt but was up again and at it in a very short time. McCormick was given the ball and made a fine run around the left end notwithstanding the fact that he had no interference to help him out. The students got the ball but could make no gains. The ball was kicked and secured again by the Townies back of the line, resulting in a touch-back. A few minutes more promiscuous playing and the whistle blew for the end of the first half.

Score: Town, 12; Punahou, 6.

It was thought that the Punahou team would play a little better game in the beginning of the second half but their reverses of the first half seemed to dishearten them and their playing on the whole appeared to be a little weaker if anything. They started off with the ball and tried for some gains around the ends, since they could not gain much through the line. The Townies secured the ball and Cornwell made another long run around the end. Rawlins, center for the Punahous, got a bad leg and retired from the game. His place was taken by Kupheia. The umpire allowed the usual distance on a foul tackle of Cornwell by Howard. Conrad made another touchdown and Cornwell kicked goal.

Score: Town, 18; Punahou, 6.

Soper got hurt in the start off. The
